To

July 10, 1867.

My dear friend) To our surprise little Harriet did not give you the umbrellas - the Station master has sent them on to Melrose by the other line - hope you will get them all right - love - love - love your friend

41, JOHN DALTON STREET,

Manchester, Aug 11th 1867

My dear Mr Garrison

I am rejoiced
to hear from William and to see from the papers that you have had a cordial reception and welcome in Newcastle - as I well knew you would have I am putting you 20 copies of the Alliance News with our report of the banquet and the Ladies Meeting. I hope that the report is faithful, though it is not full.

Thos. M. Parker
Manchester, July 11, 1867

Let me have any corrections you
wish making - before I pull off some reprints for standing
types.

You will note a cheery letter from my friend Amasa Walker, whose personal acquaintance I was happy to make when he was on some 6
or 7 years ago.

I hope you are all quite well. Please remember me most kindly to Mr. Willard and Mr. Frank.

I am gathering some newspaper articles
for P. F.

With our inner circle friends here
join me in best love. Believe me ever most truly
Thos W. Barker
